while we're at it

Dear Friends,

So Lent starts with Ash Wednesday this week. It's the time you get to recharge your spiritual life and get on track again with Jesus, to get serious about making spiritual progress.

This Wednesday is Ash Wednesday and we've got Masses and services, so check the website and bulletin. We wear ashes as a sign of our turning away from sin and our repentance. So that goes hand in hand with Confession: every Monday and Friday from 4:00 pm – 7:00 pm. Make a good Confession this Lent.

Seasons of Praise Holy Hours start Monday, February 27th. We're bringing in good priests from all around to lead us with a spiritual talk at 7 pm every Monday... if you do nothing else for Lent, attending this each Monday will renew your soul and your relationship with God. Put it on your weekly calendar. It will do more good for your soul than Netflix.

Alpha is starting Wednesdays on March 8... this is great to bring people you are hoping to bring back to the faith. You've got those people all around you and Alpha reintroduces them gently to Jesus and to a life of faith. Bringing someone back to God is one of the best things you can do for your own soul. Sign up. Yes, we've got babysitting.

Every Friday in Lent at 6:00 pm is Stations of the Cross – we need this devotion to keep us rooted in Jesus' suffering and death for us on the Cross. 8:00 in Spanish.

Married couples need renewal too – Alpha Marriage is a Saturday night out for couples with dinner, a video on marriage, and a chance for just the two of you to talk privately. It gives amazing "quality time" together and makes marriages stronger. Give it a try. Kids holding you back? We'll babysit them while you invest in your marriage.

And don't forget that a good Lenten resolution would be to get to Adoration in our Divine Mercy Adoration Chapel. We have Perpetual Adoration, so someone is there 24/7 praying for you and all our parishioners, right in front of Jesus. It's awesome and it is all-powerful. Whatever problem or worry you have, take it to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. He can fix it.

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

perfect love

SARAH DOMINGO
PRE-K 4 TEACHER
EARLY CHILDHOOD LEARNING CENTER

When planning my lesson this year for Valentine's Day, I wanted to connect my lesson to God through scripture. A holiday that is focused on the love that my four-year-old students could relate to seemed like the perfect time! We recently began talking about the Bible. My students learned that the Bible is a book of stories with messages from God that guide us in life. I started our lesson on Monday by reading the following verse from John 4-12, "If we love one another, God lives in us, and His love is perfected in us."

One of my favorite things about teaching preschool is the imagination of children at this age and the moment when a lesson connects in their heads. We talked about what love means to us and who we love in our lives.

At this age, usually love means mom or dad gives them hugs. The response from most of my children was, "They tell us." I also asked them how we can show love within our classroom. The most popular answer was by being kind to each other. The examples given were by sharing, using nice words with one another, helping a friend if they are hurt, and asking friends to play if they are alone. I taught them that when we make good choices and show kindness, we make God very happy. I also taught them that every morning, when we say our Sweet Jesus prayer and we ask God to help us to be kind, obey and make good choices throughout the day, that is also easy to show love within the classroom. God is always in our hearts. When we show kindness and love to one another, it shines brightly in us all.

Registration for St Lawrence Early Childhood Learning Center for 2023-24 is now open! We have an academic based preschool program for 3's and 4's and offer extended day services. Open and available to care for children from 7:00 am until 5:30 pm. Our PRESCHOOL ONLY day runs from 9:30 am-12:30 pm. Call the Main Office at 845-279-5164 or email sloteclc@comcast.net to find out more information about our program. We offer individual in-person tours by appointment only.

SAVANNAH DEFELICE

VALENTINE'S DATE NIGHT,

WHAT FUN!

My husband and I do not have the opportunity to go out for a date, with two young children, and no family around — it just doesn't happen. So when we heard about a date night at the church where we could enjoy a romantic atmosphere and have our kids well cared for in the Parish Center, we jumped at the chance! Date night was so much fun! My husband and I were able to enjoy appetizers and desserts while listening to music provided by DJ Hector Mendez.

We danced and laughed! It was such a wonderful opportunity to be intentional about our marriage. Thank you to Beatrice and all the volunteers who did such a wonderful job in transforming the gym into a perfect Valentine's date night!

LYNDA HOLLER
DIRECTOR OF DISCIPLESHIP

HE DID IT!

I like the Catholic prayer app, Hallow. I especially enjoy the Saint and Miracle of the Day meditations. Last week, one of the Miracle stories was especially meaningful to all of us striving to follow Christ, so I am transcribing part of it below. It is an insightful perspective on the story of Peter walking on water.

“Peter in his usual bold way steps up and says, ‘If it is you, Lord, tell me to come out on the water.’ Put yourself in Peter’s shoes: it’s the middle of the night, a man is walking on water, and your first reaction is: ‘Maybe I should do it too?’ Peter is a special kind of person because he’s also doing what he was trained to do. You see, the whole goal of a disciple was to follow their rabbi and to learn to be like them. Jesus is the rabbi and Peter is his disciple. Peter puts his training into practice, despite the absurdity of this situation. You can almost see the wheels turning in Peter’s head, ‘If my rabbi can walk on water, that means that I can walk on water.’ And sure enough, Jesus says, ‘Come.’ So, Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water, and came to Jesus. But when he saw the wind, he was afraid and beginning to sink, he cried out, ‘Lord, save me!’ Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, ‘Oh man of little faith, why did you doubt?’

“Everyone remembers Jesus’ part of the miracle and we often focus on the fact that Peter sinks, but the true miracle is that Peter also walks on water! Even though he’s human, he not only tries to walk on water, but he actually does it, until he was too afraid. This is the ultimate lesson that Jesus has for us today: If you follow Jesus, you too are his disciple, called to walk in his footsteps. Even when you fail, when you are weak, when you think you can’t do it, Jesus will be there to help. He believed in his first disciples, and he chose them to carry out his mission despite their sins and weaknesses. He does the same with you as his disciple today.”

As disciples, we need to leave our doubts behind and step out boldly in Jesus’ footsteps. Let us think of Peter, take risks, and not be afraid to fail!

Scripture: Read Matthew 14:25-31. What stands out?
