while we're at it

Dear Friends,

Everyone is saying that we didn't really get winter this year (Fine by me!), and now that we are on to daylight savings time, we're unofficially into Spring this weekend. So it's time for spring cleaning at our parishes, as well as some upgrades for our buildings and grounds. Some highlights:

At Sacred Heart, we replaced two leaky roofs over the rectory garage and part of the house. Most of it had been done a few years ago in the aftermath of the tornado that swept right through Putnam Lake, courtesy of our insurance company. Since this was a part left undamaged by the storm, they didn't cover it.

If you haven't done the outdoor Stations of the Cross at Sacred Heart, go out to the woods and do so. We put them up with funds from the Parish Improvement Campaign, and just now had a tree company come and clean out dead and dying trees near the Stations.

New and safer steps are installed in front of the St. Lawrence gym, making it easier for everyone to get in and out after Sunday coffee and donuts.

Work on our new parking lot is underway and before long we'll have a much better parking layout for our campus. We're grateful to the Village of Brewster Planning Board for approving the project.

Soon we'll be adding a shrine for the Blessed Mother on Prospect St. and some new statues (St. Teresa of Calcutta, St. Michael, St. John Paul II, and St. Padre Pio) in our prayer grotto. We'll do some landscaping enhancements to make it more beautiful and a wonderful spot for prayer and reflection outside the Church and Adoration Chapel.

A few people have been very generous so far in getting these projects going but we'll have to raise some funds to get this all done. I'm sure you'll all come through as you always do.

I mentioned at some of the Masses that occasionally people attending our Church have parked and blocked the driveways of our immediate neighbors on Prospect St. Please be careful to park only in our lot or at approved spots on the street out of consideration for everyone.

Finally, let's not forget our good Lenten resolutions. One of the best is to come every Monday in Lent to Seasons of Praise Holy Hour starting at 7:00 in the Church. Fr. Bobby Carolan of Annunciation in Crestwood will be with us this week. After it is over, musician and artist Michael Corsini will play and present his artwork at a reception in the gym.

God bless,

Fr. Richard Gill

WATCH AND PRAY

This year our Scripture program has been studying the Gospel of Mark. It is regarded as the teaching of Peter, written by his follower Mark. Last week, we delved into the fourteenth chapter which recounts the denial of Peter. It is interesting to note that this is the only Gospel that tells this story, a story that only Peter knew. Peter is humbly sharing his most shameful experience to teach us something very important.

It begins when Jesus tells the disciples "All of you will have your faith shaken." If no one had responded, this statement might have been lost to history. Instead, Peter in his signature, bold way responded, "Even though all should have their faith shaken, mine will not be." Then Jesus replied prophetically: "Amen, I say to you, this very night before the cock crows twice you will deny me three times." Peter insists, "Even though I should have to die with you, I will not deny you."

Soon after, Jesus brings them to Gethsemane and asks Peter, James, and John to stay near Him and pray. He advanced off on his own to pray to his Father and when He returned they were asleep. Jesus said to Peter, "Simon, are you asleep? Could you not keep watch for one hour? Watch and pray that you may not undergo the test. The spirit is willing but the flesh is weak." By inviting them to keep watch and pray, Jesus was offering them the graces they needed to remain faithful. But they didn't pray, and they didn't remain faithful.

We all know what unfolds: Jesus is soon arrested, the disciples run off scared, Peter shows up in the courtyard to see what is happening, and prophecy is fulfilled by Peter denying Jesus. An important theory from our class discussion was that at the moment, Peter may have not realized the seriousness of his words; he may have thought he could get away with it without Jesus knowing – just as we think that we can get away with our sins without Jesus knowing. The cock crowing awakened him to reality. Peter's spirit was willing; our spirits are willing too, but his flesh was weak and so is ours. As disciples, let us learn from Peter. We can not stay faithful without prayer and the graces that flow from it.

Scripture: Read Mark 14:37-38. What stands out?

Call to Action: Create a regular daily prayer routine and ask Jesus to give you the grace to stay faithful to Him.

baby saved from abortion on first day of lenten prayer campaign

MERCHE CRESPO -ALETIA

We cannot give their names to preserve their identity, so we will call them Jane and Joe. This young Spanish couple went last Ash Wednesday to the Dator abortion center, one of the best-known abortuaries in Madrid, Spain, where thousands of children are aborted every year. They were not alone; they were accompanied by Jane's mother, Eva.

IN THEIR 20S, UNEMPLOYED AND WITH THREE CHILDREN

The young couple are both in their 20s, and neither of them is currently working. They live in one of the poorest areas of Spain and they have three young children. For this reason, the news that Jane had become pregnant again filled them with fear of the difficulties they would face in taking care of a new child. In this situation, they decided to have an abortion.

However, their experience with their first three children filled them with doubts about their decision. They were aware that pregnancy means a new child has already come into existence, not just a "clump of cells."

A SILENT PRESENCE, AND AN EYE-CATCHING PRO-LIFE CENTER When they arrived at the abortion center, their anguish was such that none of the three noticed the silent presence of a group of volunteers from Spanish pro-life organization 40 Days for Life, who that same day (coinciding with the beginning of Lent) had just started their prayer campaign to end abortion.

Joe and Jane entered the abortion clinic. Eva remained outside on the street. As she waited, she saw on the opposite street corner an eye-catching place called Pro-Life Refuge ("Refugio Provida"). This is an initiative run by various pro-life organizations, which gives pregnant women with difficulties the help they need to go ahead with their motherhood. Eva decided to go in.

"YOU DON'T BELIEVE, BUT THEY DO" "She told the people at the Shelter that Jane and Joe were inside the abortion center, but that they had many doubts," a 40 Days for Life representative tells Aleteia. Then, "the people from the Refuge told her that if the couple came out, they could help them, but since they were already inside, they could do nothing. At that point, someone pointed to the 40 Days for Life group and told Eva to ask them to pray for her daughter. 'I just don't believe in these things,' she replied. 'You don't, but they do,' the volunteer replied. 'So don't worry, just go tell them.'"

And so she did. Immediately, the small group began to pray silently that God would save the baby's life, and enlighten the parents so that they would decide to go ahead with their child's life. Minutes later, to Eva's surprise and the joy of the 40 Days for Life volunteers, Joe and Jane left the abortion center "as if pushed by an inner force." Eva immediately told them what had happened and took them to the Pro-Life Shelter. There they were referred to the Godmother Foundation, where they were offered an ultrasound performed by a doctor. They agreed. When they saw the baby, they decided not to abort.

Afterwards, they received all the information about how they were going to receive help during the pregnancy and during the baby's first years of life, how the organization was going to help them find work, and how they were going to give them everything they needed to raise their other 3 children.

"IT LEFT US TREMBLING" "The fact that this has happened to us just this year," Rebeca de Miguel, the coordinator of 40Días Por la Vida in Madrid, explains to Aleteia, "when we've opened a second prayer campaign in front of another abortion center to save more lives, and on the first day, left us literally trembling with emotion."

And she concludes: "This shows that prayer is the real force that will succeed in ending abortion. And it encourages us to continue trusting in God and to commit ourselves with our active participation in the campaigns of silent and peaceful prayer in front of abortion centers."
