DONATE TODAY AND HELP US BEAUTIFY THE PARISH GROUNDS

Our statues have arrived from Italy and during the spring and summer we will be putting them up in the parish prayer grotto and near the new parking lot. We've got some landscaping to do but exciting changes are coming soon.

To date, we've raised $225,000 in pledges toward our $350,000 goal.

We are looking for pledges over the next few years of $1000, $5000, and $10,000 - whatever you can afford, on a timeline you can manage. And all donors at those levels will be remembered on a special Memorial Donor Board in the new wing of the Church. They will also receive in thanksgiving a miniature replica of the statue to be erected of St. Padre Pio hearing confessions.

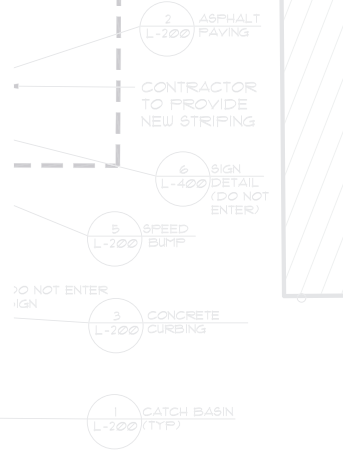

WAYS TO GIVE

You can give a one time gift or a pledge over five years, by the means most convenient for you.

1. Checks made payable to St. Lawrence O'Toole, On memo line write: Campus Improvement Program

while we're at it

Dear Friends,

So much to be grateful for this Easter season...

Soon our new parking lot will open and we'll be relieved of some of the crowded conditions we've had forever. Let's thank God for that. We're hoping to get our new shrines built this spring/summer as the work allows us. Thank you to everyone who has pledged or contributed to making our parish better.

Dozens of parishioners, in Spanish and English, are working the Alpha Course, getting to know Jesus and the Holy Spirit and making a deeper commitment to faith. We even have 20+ teens taking Youth Alpha.

A number of parishioners who have suffered the loss of a loved one are finding support and healing in the Grief Share program Saturday mornings, where they learn to bear the pain of loss and find meaning and hope. If you know someone grieving, this is a great support... Saturday mornings.

This week we will have Bp. Joe Espailat come to confirm seventy 8th graders on Thursday and Friday, and the next day we will celebrate the First Communions of another ninety or so children. God is so good to invite these young people to the fullness of the Catholic Faith. Let's all pray for them...

We should also give thanks to God for something we maybe take for granted too often: the gift of perseverance in the faith. We all have a long way to go to get to the finish line, but by His grace we are still believing, still striving to be the best Christians we can be, and still looking to lead others to Jesus. That is something beautiful and I thank you all for your fidelity in difficult times.

A theme coming to me in prayer this Easter season is very much Do not be afraid. It's the message of Jesus to his followers after his Resurrection. We should not be afraid to profess faith in Him, to be a Catholic, and to live it out publicly and proudly. Others need to see how we embrace our faith.

I'll pray for all of you to grow deeper in love with Jesus and not be afraid. He is risen and has overcome our enemy.

God bless,

Fr. Richard

our vision

Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

LYNDA HOLLER
DIRECTOR OF DISCIPLESHIP

MULTIFACETED POTENTIAL

In reading John’s Gospel story of Jesus appearing to his disciples for the first time after his Resurrection, I was inspired to think of it from a different perspective than we normally do. Imagine the scene from Jesus’ perspective:

Jesus walks through the locked door and scans the room. It is filled with his disciples, his closest friends. He knows them each intimately; he has spent three years traveling, eating, sleeping, and teaching them. He knows their families, their fears, their strengths and weaknesses, and the deepest longings of their hearts. He has performed great miracles in their presence. He laughed with them, cried with them. But now, they stare at Him incredulously.

I imagine that it was quite a messy-looking group. Most probably hadn’t bathed or groomed themselves for a few days. Certainly, they had been crying, possibly arguing, not eating much, confused about what to do next, and afraid to leave the upper room. Then Jesus’ first words to them are, “Peace be with you.” Shalom was the great hope of the Jewish people and “Shalom” was what the disciples really needed to hear.

Then instead of focusing on their baffled expressions and disheveled appearance, Jesus ordains his beloved followers, giving them the power to forgive sins, initiating the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Interesting, right? Instead of commenting in any way about how they abandoned him or any reference to their failings or the events of the last three days, He focuses on their potential. Jesus sees diamonds in the rough, disciples that would be polished into the great saints that would start his Church and spread his Gospel to the far corners of the earth.

Now close your eyes and imagine you are Jesus looking at you. I believe He sees you the same way. Whether just rough around the edges or still a solid slab of stone, He looks at you, not as you are now, but as what you can become if you allow Him to chisel and polish you.

Scripture: Read John 20:18:9-23. What stands out?

Call to Action: Ask Jesus to show you how to become the glorious multifaceted gemstone He envisions you to be.

canvas for a cause

MIKE LEONARD

“There is no power for change greater than a community discovering what it cares about.”

I came across this wonderful quote by Margaret J Wheatly, which I believe encapsulates the ethos of Brewster Cares. As a community-based nonprofit, we look to unmet needs in the community and try to address them. But I might add to Wheatly's quote: power for change starts when individuals realize their community is important, and those individuals decide to invest in their communities. We saw that power in spades this weekend at our inaugural Canvas for a Cause fundraiser.

Dozens of community members and local artists donated their time and talents to the work that was displayed. Musicians volunteered to perform. Some of our ESL students both volunteered and donated artwork, eager to give back to the program. We had community members support us monetarily, buying artwork and donating to us directly. This event showcased that collective community effort, and all of the funds raised will be directly invested into Brewster Cares programming. All of us at Brewster Cares, and those we serve, extend our gratitude to all of the artists who donated and everyone who participated.

We received so much incredible artwork that we are continuing the auction online for the coming weeks. If you didn't have a chance to make the event and would like to donate to Brewster Cares at:

www.givebutter.com/c/canvasforacause/auction and check out the work still available.

It takes all of us to make change. Maybe you can help by purchasing an art piece from our fundraiser or donating directly, maybe you'd like to volunteer, or maybe you see an unmet need in the community you'd like to help solve.

We'd love for you to get involved! Contact us at brewstercaresny@gmail.com.

As Catholics, food also has a spiritual significance; it is a sign of God's love and a foretaste of the Eucharist. This Spring, women of St Lawrence and Sacred Heart will engage in Around the Catholic Table, a video and discussion series based on The Catholic Table by Emily Stimpson Chapman. Come taste the love of God and enjoy some new recipes too!

7:00 pm - 8:30 pm

Time and again, the people of God are called to 'be courageous' and 'be not afraid,' yet, we live in a time where fear seems to guide our very existence. How do we address fears and take back our lives from fear's grasp? How do we hold strong to our beliefs as Catholics and not give in to the fear of getting 'canceled'? How do we maintain faith in the midst of fear and suffering? Chris Stefanick leads this 3-week series focused on helping us face fear with fortitude.
