CORPUS CHRISTI

JUNE 11 AT 3:45 PM

Meet across from the train station for the procession of the Blessed Sacrament through the Village of Brewster.

Followed by 40 hours of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Join us!

June 11, 2023

while we're at it

Dear Friends,

Today we celebrate the great Eucharistic feast of Corpus Christi in these years of Eucharistic Revival called for by the bishops of the United States. So today, as is our custom, we'll process with the Blessed Sacrament through the streets of Brewster from the train station to the Church. We begin at 3:45 pm, and we invite you and your family to join us in this wonderful show of our faith in Jesus's Real Presence in the Blessed Sacrament. That is the center of our Catholic Faith.

After the 5:30 pm Mass, we'll have the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament on the main altar for 40 Hours of Devotion – all day and all night – with Benediction at 8:15 am Tuesday morning. Join in for some time in quiet prayer before our Eucharistic Lord, and bring all your prayer intentions. It's there – in the presence of Jesus – that we find answers and comfort for every worry and every suffering we and our loved ones experience. "Come to me, all you who are heavily burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart and you will find rest. For my yoke is easy and my burden light." (MT 11: 28-30)

We welcomed Fr. Clifford for the summer last weekend. He can be with us for a few months and help while he's free from his seminary duties in Nigeria. Thank you for sharing your priesthood with us. Keep Fr. Tom in your prayers – he's gone off to his sabbatical at Notre Dame University and will be working on a new book.

Over the course of this summer, we will be onboarding a new Youth Minister and a new Director of Religious Education, as Dom Russo and Cecilia Britez have moved away.

We have very exciting news, the Cardinal has assigned our two parishes a full-time parochial vicar to help us continue to grow and evangelize. Fr. Osvaldo Hernandez was ordained five years ago and has been working at St. Peter's in Haverstraw since. He was born in the Dominican Republic and immigrated with his family as a teenager. We're looking forward to him bringing his gifts to serve the people of Brewster and Patterson! He'll be arriving sometime in July, and we'll be planning how we can best make use of his talents.

God bless,

Fr. Richard

CAR OWNERS!

Fr. Clifford needs a reliable car for a few months. He'll use it for daily errands, church visits, and important appointments. Contact us to help out. 845-279-2021

Thank you.

our vision

Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

fluttering wings and excited smiles: God made surprises

JANICE NASTASI

The world is a surprising place of joy. The children learned that God made Butterflies. Each PreK-3, and PreK-4 class received a cup with caterpillars in it. The curious children asked many questions about the caterpillars: what are they doing, where is their food and will they turn into butterflies?

They watched as the caterpillars climbed to the top of the cup and started to spin a house (chrysalis) around themselves. More questions were asked: what happened to the caterpillars, what is going on in their little houses and why is the chrysalis shaking? Then the excitement began as the chrysalis was transferred to a butterfly cage. Every day the children watched with curiosity to see what would happen next. One morning when they arrived at school, they saw a beautiful butterfly. During the day more butterflies emerged. They needed time and food to get strong for their release.

After Memorial Day each class chose where they would release their butterflies. The children patiently watched as the butterflies flew out of the cage and into God's beautiful world. Some flew out immediately while others were more cautious and took their time. They also learned that God had put into our world many things that change: flowers, weather, animals, plants, and even us. No two butterflies are alike just as God created each one of us to be unique.

welcome fr. osvaldo hernandez!

People ask why Fr. Hernandez pursued the priesthood. He explains: "It was an invitation from my principal to attend a vocational retreat, and I had a personal encounter with God," as he describes how the retreat cemented his decision to become a priest. "I remember being in my room, in my parents' home in Santiago (in the Dominican Republic, before the retreat). I was confused, asking myself, 'What am I going to do?'"

Fr. Hernandez said his teenage confusion stemmed from facing the choice of whether to seek the path to the priesthood or continue his relationship with his girlfriend and study to become an engineer. After months of serious discernment, he decided on the priesthood and amicably broke up with his girlfriend, who supported his decision. He had been a choir member during high school, in the family's parish, San Pio X in Santiago, where he was born and raised.

When he was 19, his parents, Osvaldo Antonio Hernandez and Miguelina Hernandez Marte, and his brother and two sisters immigrated to the United States, settling in Washington Heights in Manhattan and later in the Bronx. He worked to learn English and held a job at a factory and later at a restaurant to help his family financially. His desire to seek the priesthood, which had begun to wane, was rekindled during a Catholic Charismatic Renewal gathering in the Bronx when he was 21.

In 2009, he entered St. John Neumann College Seminary on the campus of St. Joseph's Seminary. He graduated from St. John's University in Queens in 2014, with a bachelor's degree in philosophy and minors in theology and Spanish.

"It is a calling when you realize with certainty that God is calling you," Fr. Hernandez said of the priesthood. "You don't know how to describe it... We decide to do the will of God." Fr. Hernandez's first years as a priest have been at St. Peter and St. Mary in Haverstraw. He has been on mission trips to Mexico, Haiti, and the Dominican Republic. He enjoys singing, playing the guitar, and sharing time with friends.

We are blessed to have Fr. Osvaldo join us!

Thanks to all who put in many hours to clean up our parish's property--inside and out! Everything looked so beautiful today thanks to some of you who joined forces to get this done. Also a big thank you to Annette who put this idea into action!

FEARLESS
TUESDAYS
June 13, 20, 27
GYM
7:00 pm - 8:30 pm

Time and again, the people of God are called to 'be courageous' and 'be not afraid,' yet, we live in a time where fear seems to guide our very existence. How do we address fears and take back our lives from fear's grasp? How do we hold strong to our beliefs as Catholics and not give in to the fear of getting 'canceled'? How do we maintain faith in the midst of getting 'canceled'? Chris Stefanick leads this 3-week series focused on helping us face fear with fortitude.

DIRECTOR OF DISCIPLESHIP

PERSONAL PILGRIMAGE

Memorial Weekend I drove to my sister’s house in Western New York for my niece’s bridal shower. Sandy and her husband live 30 minutes from the small town of Cattaraugus where we grew up. I hadn’t visited my hometown in many years. This time I felt a nudging to make the trip, not just to drive down Main Street and cruise by my childhood home, but specifically to attend Mass at St. Mary’s. I thought of it on Saturday, but I never checked the Mass times. Sunday morning, however, it was the first thought that came to mind. Still lying in bed, I checked my phone: 11:15 Mass, perfect!

Most of the family had to attend earlier Masses, but my son’s girlfriend and two of Sandy’s sisters-in-law joined me. Growing up, St. Mary’s was a healthy, active church, but in a small town with more Protestants than Catholics, it had a small congregation. It still does, but we entered to the sound of worshippers praying the Rosary. So welcoming. I was home. The most distinctive feature of St. Mary’s is the large Crucifix of the Resurrected Christ on the front wall. It looks similar to the small one we display at St. Lawrence during the Easter season.

Throughout Mass, I had an overwhelming feeling of gratitude. It was very clear to me that I was in a very sacred place; not just because it is a Catholic church, but because it is my foundation. I felt the Spirit telling me that because my parents were faithful parishioners, and Father Haran was dedicated to serving God and us, and Srs. Damian, Rita, Rosemarie, and the other nuns devotedly taught me, and church friends directed the CYO and choir and ran the chicken BBQs to keep St. Mary’s vibrant and relevant, my Catholic foundation for discipleship was firmly established in that very place.

We don’t all grow up with tidy childhoods and good Catholic role models, but all of our discipleship foundations began somewhere. The churches and the people that lit the spark, that kept the pilot light going and fanned the flame. That is our purpose here at St. Lawrence and Sacred Heart too. May people travel back one day to this sacred place and remember you and your role in leading them to be a disciple of Christ.

Scripture: Read Hebrews 10:24. What stands out?

Call to Action: Take your own personal pilgrimage to the churches that formed you and pray for the priests, religious, and fellow parishioners that taught and supported you.
