while we're at it

Dear Friends,

These past weeks have had their share of much anti-Catholicism with the Los Angeles Dodgers honoring an anti-Catholic hate group that mocks Our Lord and the Blessed Mother and our faith in general. I was proud to see thousands of Catholics turn out to protest at the stadium.

Like it or not, we're living in a world in which our religious values – those we have held in common with other Christian denominations for many generations – are now considered extreme, hateful, or biased. It is sad to see some other Christian churches championing “pride marches” in our town and drifting away from the Gospel values we held in common. It's sad to see store chains and sports franchises and school systems jumping on the bandwagon too.

But we believe that God knew what he was doing in creating us male and female and that our true happiness comes from embracing the complementarity of the sexes. At the same time, we treat every person with dignity and respect and love them regardless of different opinions on these issues.

Despite the fact the country has made it legal, we don't accept gay marriage or sexual relations between people of the same sex as morally good or leading to true human happiness. That's because sexual relations are oriented to new life and therefore are good and wholesome – even sacred - only in a life-long union of one man and one woman.

California is rushing now to define a right to fertility for all persons – for singles, transgender people, and those in same-sex relationships. This would require insurance agencies to fund in vitro fertilization and surrogate mothers for singles and same-sex and transgender people. Surrogacy and in vitro are completely immoral practices that can never be justified, in spite of the good intentions people may have.

There is never any good moral reason to hormonally or surgically attempt to change one's sex. It amounts to the mutilation of the human body God gave each of us. It is medically unethical, especially for minors. But the medical profession has rallied to it because it is financially very lucrative. In time, people will understand that it does not solve the deeper issues in a suffering person.

We are living a faith that is currently unpopular, and that will bring criticism and persecution to us and to all who try to remain faithful to the Gospel. But Jesus knew this and said so in no uncertain terms. “Blessed are you when men persecute on my account... your reward will be great in heaven.” (Mt. 5).

Let's stay faithful to the faith we have received from Jesus.

God bless,

Fr. Richard

Pre-K 3 Moving up ceremony

Pre-K 4 Graduation ceremony

movin' on up!

KIM SANTERRE

The St. Lawrence O'Toole Early Childhood Learning Center celebrated the end of the school year with its traditional ceremonies.

On Wednesday, June 14, Pre-K 3 celebrated their year's end with a moving-up ceremony. Their theme was "The Very Hungry Caterpillar." The children said our "Sweet Jesus" prayer, pledged allegiance to our flag, and performed several songs for the audience's entertainment, along with telling the Very Hungry Caterpillar's story. Then, the children were presented with their moving-up certificates.

On Thursday, June 15, Pre-K 4 had its preschool graduation ceremony. Their theme was "God Bless America." The children also said our "Sweet Jesus" prayer, pledged allegiance to our flag, and sang some patriotic songs for the audience. They were presented with their preschool diplomas. The children performed a grand finale of "This Little Heart of Mine." It was spectacular! "Best graduation finale ever" as described by Danielle Salvo, ECLC's Office Manager. Lynn Sherman, ECLC's Music teacher, who pulled together both of the shows, said the finale "made her cry every time and they did so great!" One of the ECLC's moms, Emily Murphy, said this year's graduation ceremony has been "the BEST ceremony to date" and she "loved the dance and song at the end and all of the extra songs! Really well done." The ECLC Staff wished the children well for their departure from ECLC as they will be off to new schools to begin kindergarten in September!

We pray that God continues to bless and protect each child and their family with success, happiness, and peace in their new adventures. While we have so many hopes for each of the children, our biggest one is that all will keep what we instill in each and every child while at ECLC, that Jesus is always kept at the heart of all they will do throughout their own journeys!!!

Welcome Trisha Thien!

I am so excited to be joining the parish as the Director of Youth Faith Formation! I will work with all of the 6-8 graders, overseeing their religious education and sacraments, and giving those students the most authentic opportunities to know who Jesus is. Knowing Jesus truly brings the greatest adventure, and He has done a lot of amazing work to bring me here with you all.

I was born and raised in a small town in Ohio called Fort Recovery. My background is very rich in the Catholic faith since my family and the majority of my hometown is Catholic.

I graduated from Ball State University in Indiana with a degree in History Education. It was there at college, with the help of very loyal friends, that I really started to learn the beauty of the Catholic faith, and it became a big part of my life. After graduating, I worked as a missionary at a Catholic youth camp in Colorado. Then one day as my time in Colorado was ending, a friend that was living here in Westchester County randomly asked me if I would like to live with her, and I said, "Sure." So after that move and working for a bit as a nanny in Greenwich, CT, I humbly accepted the director position here.

I have always had a heart for youth since they have such fun, curious, and honest personalities. And part of my joy comes from inspiring young people, introducing them to something new, and showing them how their life is worthwhile.

I am a big fan of 80s classic rock, reading, going to the beach, spending time with friends, and eating pizza.

I am very thankful for how welcoming everyone has been! I can't wait to meet you all and, of course, the students. Jesus is an awesome friend and King, and it's going to be a fun and wild ride to see what He has in store for us this year!

lifeteen conference

TRISHA THIEN

From June 11-14, the youth ministry team of Fr. Rich, Julie, Gabby, and Trisha, braced the scorching Arizona "dry heat" to attend the LifeTeen Catholic Youth Ministry Convention (CYMC) in Phoenix. It was four days of back-to-back talks, prayer, praise, fellowship (and cups of coffee to keep the team going).

Attending CYMC will help our team be prepared and inspired for this upcoming year of religious education programs. Or as Fr. Richard described, "it's a shot in the arm" to be refreshed for ministry. LifeTeen is the curriculum the parish uses for our religious education program. There were many ideas that were brought back, and new things to bring into the youth ministry, and we learned how to fine-tune parts that were done in the past.

The talks gave a lot of information to help Trisha begin her first year running the EDGE program and help Father, Gabby, and Julie gain more knowledge and awareness about topics such as what teens are experiencing in the world, building up unity and relationships, and how to build engaging and transforming programs. In short, the team walked away ready to follow the Holy Spirit back to St. Lawrence O'Toole and Sacred Heart and make this a year unlike any other.

PROCEEDS FOR IMPROVEMENTS TO THE ST. LAWRENCE & SACRED HEART

LYNDA HOLLER
DIRECTOR OF DISCIPLESHIP

ONE HAIL MARY

The Sisters of Life published a wonderful quarterly magazine, Imprint. I always look forward to its insightful articles. The Spring issue is focused on Mary; one story illuminates the normally unknown impact of prayer. I want to share it with you.

A young husband and father was running through his neighborhood and saw an ambulance in somebody's driveway. He thought about stopping, but he didn't know the owner and wasn't a doctor, so he ran on. But: "...he prayed one Hail Mary. One Hail Mary. He didn't stop and fold his hands; he didn't kneel. He just prayed one Hail Mary as he was jogging. He didn't think anything of it."

A week later he jogged by that house again and a woman called to him from the front porch. He didn't know her. "He stopped, turned around, and said, 'Me?' She said, 'Yeah, you... You saved my life.'" She went on to explain, "Last week I was sick, and I was rushed to the hospital. And I was in the hospital dying. And I knew I was dying. Jesus appeared to me, and He held out his hand ... and your face was on the palm of his hand. And He said to me, "You were going to die, but because of the prayer of this man, you're going to live.'"

This is a true story from a very credible source. We don't normally have the opportunity to see the fruits of our prayers, but clearly, God wants to reveal many things to us through these two strangers. Jesus bestowed many graces here: He healed the woman and allowed her to see who was responsible; He rewarded the jogger for his simple sacrifice; He allowed the woman and jogger to meet, so the young father could know and share the story. The Sisters of Life have spread it to thousands of people and I am spreading it to a few hundred more. If you tell people you know, imagine the graces that will pour forth from all those prayers!

I love this story because I have said prayers in this way for many years. When I see a car accident, ambulance, funeral, or a homeless person, anytime I see that people are in need and suffering, I bless myself and say a prayer. This story shows me that my prayers are fruitful. Yours are too. Join me.

Scripture: Read 1 Timothy 2:1. What stands out?

Call to Action: Meditate on how wonderful God is to allow us to help each other in such a simple way.
