FR. RICHARD GILL

Why do we have a Pope and other Christians don't accept him? Catholics believe the Pope is the successor of St. Peter, the first pope, and head of the apostles. Jesus very obviously put St. Peter in charge of the Church and intended for his successors to lead and guide the Church (See Mt. 16: 16-18) and be its unifying force. All through the Scriptures, St. Peter stands out in any list at the head. And from the early Church, it is clear that his successors were always considered in a unique role of leadership and special authority over all the Churches spread around the world. Pope Francis is the current successor of St. Peter and is the Bishop of Rome.

The papacy was commonly accepted almost everywhere until the Orthodox Churches of the East (Eastern Orthodox, etc.) broke away in 1054 over many political issues but also over the extent of the authority of the pope over bishops.

Other Christians (Lutheran, Episcopalian, Presbyterian, etc.) broke away from the Catholic Church in the 1500s and began to re-interpret the Scriptures and reject the tradition of the faith. Sadly now, there are thousands of Protestant splinter churches everywhere that believe so many different things.

st. peter

One of the great gifts we have as Catholics is the pope, who is guided by the Holy Spirit in a special way to lead the Church and keep it faithful to what Jesus taught and passed on to us. We pray the Holy Spirit will bring us back together again someday.

while we're at it

Dear Friends,

As you know, the Bishops have invited the whole Church in the United States to take part in a three-year renewal of our faith in the Eucharist as the Body and Blood of Christ – the center of our faith as Catholics. It's a way of getting back to basics and it was spurred by the realization from surveys that the majority of Catholics are confused about what the Eucharist really is. Many think it's just symbolic, but the truth of the Catholic faith, from the Scriptures, and the entire tradition for 2000 years, is that it is the very Body and Blood of Christ. As such, it is the greatest gift we have from Jesus and something that is precious. It is why we receive Communion each week, why we genuflect reverently in Church, why we kneel, and why we have an Adoration Chapel. Vatican II called it the source and summit of the Christian life.

Needless to say, the Church will only be able to limp along unless we have a strong and universal faith in the power of the Eucharist in our lives.

So... lots to do in this time of renewal. Some suggestions:

1. Go to the official website: eucharisticrevival.org. There are great articles, videos, and resources and you can be kept up to date on the renewal efforts all around the country.

2. Watch for our Adult Faith Formation offerings this Fall and Winter on the Eucharist – it will help you grow in your faith and love for the Blessed Sacrament.

3. Save the date for our Jesus Fest at St. Lawrence on September 16-17. We'll have a tent outside with Adoration going on along with games and fun and food for families and kids.

4. Sign up for your own hour of Adoration in our Divine Mercy Adoration Chapel. It will be the best hour of your week each week – the one in which you are there with Jesus Himself and can talk with him about anything. stlawrenceotoole.org/adoration

5. Look ahead and sign up for our visit to the NY State Eucharistic Congress with the eight dioceses of our state all joining together in Auriesville, NY, at the Shrine of the North American Martyrs (near Albany). We'll have busses heading up from our parishes... the date is Saturday, Oct. 21.

We've got good devotion to the Eucharist here, especially with our 24/7 Perpetual Adoration going on. That's what makes our parish successful and strong. But we have to get 100% of our people to love the Eucharist – and then wonderful things will be happening to us all.

God bless,

Fr. Richard

This riveting book tells the true story of a saint. A saint who was a crack addict, who once lived in a cardboard shack on the roughest streets of New York City, and who on one cold night told God that he would serve him for the rest of his life, and who was able to make good on that promise in the most extraordinary of ways.

LYNDA HOLLER
DIRECTOR OF DISCIPLESHIP

LEGACY

Last week the Church celebrated the feasts of St. Anne and St. Joachim, the parents of Mary the Mother of God. We know that Jesus is the Son of God the Father, that He has a biological mother in Mary, and a stepfather Joseph. We know that He descended from the line of King David, but I never thought any deeper about his family. I have known of Mary’s parents Sts. Anne and Joachim but it never really clicked with me that Jesus had grandparents!

There is no written record telling us how long they lived, so we do not know whether they were alive at the same time as Jesus, but that is unimportant. I love to think about the fact that just as Jesus carries Mary’s DNA, He also carries the genes of Sts. Anne and Joachim. Think of how important most of our grandparents were in our lives, whether it be spending time with them or the physical features, mannerisms, and traditions they passed down. Jesus may have had Joachim’s nose and Anne’s laugh. He may have loved Anne’s recipe for cinnamon bread that Mary traditionally made for the holidays. Joachim may have taught his son-in-law the best way to fix a leaky roof which helped to keep Joseph’s family safe and dry.

All the grandparents I know speak of how the love for their grandchildren surpasses even the love they have for their own children – which seems impossible but true. Anne and Joachim must have loved Jesus that way, just because He was Mary’s son, without knowing his potential. Jesus in return honors their faith-filled legacy.

Meditate on how St. Joachim’s grandson is Jesus Christ King of the Universe! How St. Anne modeled to Mary how to be a mother. How St. Anne’s efforts were the early preparation Mary needed to not only mother Jesus well, but to go forth and mother all humanity. Let us all reflect on this beautiful truth. St. Anne and St. Joachim never could have dreamed that their blood would flow in the precious blood of their Messiah. God’s purpose for their lives was to give birth to Mary who would give birth to Jesus. They fulfilled their roles obediently, and God rewarded them greatly. That challenges us to consider that our purpose may not be what we accomplish personally, but what influence we pass on to our children, grandchildren and others in our lives.

Scripture: Read Matthew 1:1-15. What stands out?

Call to Action: Pray to Sts. Anne and Joachim — ask them to guide you, so your influence can carry on for generations too.
