while we're at it

Dear Friends,

The On the Boardwalk Family Fun event at the Elks last Sunday was a blast with 228 moms, dads, and kids having fun competing in games and winning prizes, jumping in the pool, or getting water ballooned. Watch for our Jesus Fest on our own grounds at St. Lawrence Sept 16-17. We'll have lots of food and fun and music and a big tent with Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament going on both days. We're planning it out now, and we'll get the word out soon.

This year we've been blessed to get all our five auxiliary bishops and Cardinal Dolan himself to come out for our Seasons of Praise Holy Hours, so they can lead us and give us a reflection on what the Eucharist means personally to each of them. We'll be having a different bishop more or less each month starting September 19 with Bishop Ed Whalen, who is the Vicar for the Clergy and the Episcopal Vicar for Manhattan. This is a unique and amazing series we will have at St. Lawrence.

We're calling the series, Shepherds Speak and it will be their own personal experience of the Eucharist. We wanted to do it during this year of Eucharistic Renewal and what better way than to invite the leaders of our Church in New York to share with us. Save the 19th of September at 7:00 pm for the first of these amazing experiences of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

And a huge event you're all invited to: the New York State Eucharistic Congress on Oct. 21. We've got buses ready to take us up to the Shrine of the North American Martyrs in Auriesville to join 10,000 Catholics from all over the state for a day of prayer, Mass, Eucharistic Procession. Auriesville is a beautiful shrine in the countryside outside Albany, about 2 hours plus away. It is the place where St. Isaac Jogues and other Jesuits were martyred by the Mohawks and the site where St. Kateri Tekakwitha was born.

We'll go up in the morning and have Mass with all the bishops of New York inside the huge Shrine and there will be food, a Eucharistic Procession and some great speakers; we'll head home in the evening. We're just asking $25 to cover the bus, but if you can't do that, we'll find someone to cover it for you. Sign up today while we still have space at stlawrenceotoole.org/NYS_EC

God bless,

Fr. Richard

our vision

Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

welcome Brittany!!

Our New Director of Early Childhood Learning Center

Brittany Gauriloff holds a BA in Psychology, a Child Development Associate Credential in Preschool and began her career as a Mental Health Worker at Four Winds Hospital. She is a lifelong parishioner at St. John the Evangelist Church in Mahopac. At St. John's she has been a 2nd grade catechist for the past 10 years, served on the parish council, and created and facilitated the Tiny Tots at Jesus' House program.

Brittney (or Mrs. G as the preschoolers call her) was introduced to Early Childhood Learning Center (ECLC) as a parent in 2017. She immediately knew it was the right place for her children, and her heart has been with St. Lawrence O'Toole ECLC ever since. She began her career at St. Lawrence O'Toole facilitating the Just the Two of Us program, then at ECLC as a teachers aide, and as the school music teacher. When not at school, Brittany can be found reading a good book, and spending time with her husband and two sons.

Brittany is excited and grateful to be at St. Lawrence O'Toole ECLC in her new role, and counting down the days until the school's halls are filled with smiling faces again!

This riveting book tells the true story of a saint. A saint who was a crack addict, who once lived in a cardboard shack on the roughest streets of New York City, and who on one cold night told God that he would serve him for the rest of his life, and who was able to make good on that promise in the most extraordinary of ways.

MICHELLE ZAMBRASKI

As we took a stroll on the boardwalk, we were welcomed by smiling faces, balloons, music, sand sculptures, and the best attraction, the Hydro Burst (watch out, it's a wet one)!

The arts and crafts table was an under-the-sea theme - from cool tattoos, seashell paintings, and awesome jellyfish hats that people wore throughout the day! And if crafting wasn't your thing, the yard games were a lot of fun! There was corn-hole, flip the lid and the favorite game of the day "Get your junk out of my yard." Parents and kids battled to clean up their area before the time ran out. Needless to say, the parents were REALLY into this game!

The weather was beautiful, as well, so we had many families taking dips in the pool. And the last event of the day had people crowding around the polar plunge challenge. It was a competition to see who could last 60 seconds in ice water mini pools. If you needed to cool off, that would be one sure way of doing it!

The arcade and game area was a big hit! Children (and adults too) were lined up to play ring toss, water gun races, hook the washer, basketball toss, and many more family fun games.

There was lots of excitement, laughter, and tickets being won by all. The best was towards the end of the day when all the kids circled the auction table in anticipation of winning their favorite toys. Once their number was read, there was a lot of jumping up and down and cheering for all the prizes that they had won.

Most importantly, it was nice to see such a great turnout - over 225 parents and children - with half being new faces! St. Lawrence and Sacred Heart parishioners came together to host the families of our communities and to help them pause their busy lives and just play - together with other families. Good clean family fun in the sun!

LYNDA HOLLER
DIRECTOR OF DISCIPLESHIP

HERO'S JOURNEY

I recently listened to a homily by Bishop Barron entitled, "Go on a Hero's Journey." It really clarified some of the choices I had made throughout my life. His message is that the Bible and good literature are filled with examples of the lead character being invited out of his comfortable life into the unknown. The important point is that they set off unsure of where they will end up, but in making that journey they make possible something that would never happen otherwise.

This speaks to me because I come from a comfortable life in a very small town in Western New York, but from early childhood I felt called to leave and move to New York City. No one I knew had ever moved there. No one understood why I would want to live there; I just knew it was where I was supposed to be. By the time I married, I had known the urban lifestyle wasn't what I wanted with a family, and we felt called to Brewster. No neighboring community felt right. Fr. Doughty once told the congregation that we should pray to St. Lawrence, that he had led us here. That felt true to me. I have lived in Brewster for 30 years now and it feels like I am where I am supposed to be.

Bishop Barron explains that God is the one that invites us to take the risks, to step out of our comfortable existence into the unknown with trust and confidence in Him. You may not feel like the adventurous sort, but even sedentary Bilbo Baggins, in The Hobbit, was energized once he got out of his comfortable shire. That was when his life really began. Lived properly, Christianity is an adventure. Saying yes to God's invitations reveals a fulfilling life that benefits us and all who know us.

My story may seem rather ordinary to be a "hero's journey," yours may too, but thanks to God's invitations, our stories have converged. It is no accident or coincidence that we are living life together in this place and time. Our journey continues. As disciples, let's listen for Jesus's invitations and choose adventure over comfort!

Scripture: Read Genesis 12:1-4. What stands out?

Call to Action: Listen to Bishop Barron's homily at <https://youtu.be/V5ll3xYWE1w>. Reflect on where God has led you already and what He may be inviting you to do now..
