while we're at it

Dear Friends,

Thanks to all who volunteered or donated for our annual Golf Outing – we raised $30,000 for Brewster Cares and the great work it does for the homeless and the immigrant community.

Our campus improvements are continuing and we are getting the prayer grotto statues in place and hopefully, we can inaugurate them soon. Thanks to all the generous donors who made the enhancements to the grotto and the parking possible. Next week we'll be doing some plantings in the rectory parking lot.

And repairs are always needed – this time a compressor for the heat pump in the church at St. Lawrence!

At Sacred Heart, we're waiting on planning board meetings for the permit to do the deck we had planned. Let's see what happens there...

As we turn into September, things pick up a lot... the real big deal is the Jesus Fest Sept 16-17 with a tent for Adoration and all sorts of beautiful activities for the weekend, including a procession with the Blessed Sacrament. We'll also be kicking off our year for religious education that weekend with Savannah DeFelice as Family Program Coordinator and Trisha Thien as our Youth Minister. Check out the info in the bulletin and put it on your calendar.

We're doing something amazing too for the Eucharistic Revival – for the first time in history, we're having all six of our bishops, including Cardinal Dolan – come to St. Lawrence to give a holy hour each month with their own personal reflections on what the Eucharist means to them. This is a series of six events called Shepherds Speak that you simply cannot miss. The first is September 19 at 7:00 pm with Bp. Whalen. He's the Vicar for Clergy and the Episcopal Vicar for Manhattan. This will be an amazing series that will help us all grow in our love for the Eucharist.

And don't miss our Brewster Cares Donor Luncheon on September 30 at Las Mananitas. Get tickets at weblink.donorperfect.com/BCLuncheon.

God bless,

Fr. Richard

swinging for a cause

MIKE LEONARD

On Friday, Aug. 25 St. Lawrence and Sacred Heart held their 31st Annual Golf Outing at Centennial Golf Course to raise money for Brewster Cares Homeless Shelter.

Brewster Cares is a non-profit focused on solving Homelessness and other issues here in Brewster and the surrounding areas. We continually look into our community and ask, "What needs aren't being met?" and "How can we help?" In addition to our current programs supporting the homeless population, immigrants, and families in need of a meal, we have ambitious plans for expanding our reach and creating new programs to help aid other needs in our area.

Maintaining these programs requires help from the community, including volunteers and donors. The name Brewster Cares signifies two aspects of our mission: we care for our community, and we demonstrate that we as a people of Brewster are a community that cares. Supporters came out to show how much they do care at our annual golf outing at Centennial Golf Club last Friday.

With support from local businesses, over 110 golfers came out to patronize our cause. With volunteers helping to run the event, the Golf Outing fundraiser was an unmitigated success. It's a beautiful thing when you can support your community by swinging a golf club.

By the grace of God, the weather held out, and all golfers enjoyed a day on the green with great company, awesome prizes, refreshing beverages, and delicious food. Some of the prize winners even went on to donate their winnings back to the organization, showing the true motivation of their attendance at the event: supporting the community. We appreciate, beyond words, all of the work and donations given by the businesses, golfers, volunteers, and organizers of the event. The day wouldn't have been nearly as successful without their involvement.

If you weren't able to make it to the golf outing, you can still show your support by attending our Annual Luncheon at Las Mañanitas on September 30th. Tickets are available at: weblink.donorperfect.com/BCLuncheon or at the parish rectory. Thank you in advance for once again proving that Brewster is a community full of citizens who care!

LYNDA HOLLER
DIRECTOR OF DISCIPLESHIP

GRASSROOTS CONFIDENCE

The more I read about the saints, the more confidence I have that God is actively working in every nation, community, and time period and that evil can never prevail. Even with 24/7 news broadcasts, innumerable websites, blogs, and podcasts, we can only know a speck of the activity going on in the world each day. What often lives under the radar are the holy men and women who are inspired by God to serve him in their own small sector of the world.

St. Pope John Paul II and St. Teresa of Calcutta were exceptions. Their work and travels were broadcast all around the world, but God seems to prefer to nurture local grassroots saints. A few weeks ago, I learned about St. Irma Dulce Pontes of Brazil, also known as St. Dulce of the Poor. She did great things, yet most of us have never heard of her. As St. Teresa labored tirelessly in India, St. Dulce did the same in Brazil. Their lives mirrored each other in many ways. St. Dulce was born in 1914, four years after St. Teresa of Calcutta; they were both inspired to serve the poorest of the poor, both were nominated for a Nobel Peace Prize, and both died in the 1990s. By the time of her death, St. Dulce was credited for almost single-handedly creating one of the largest and most respected philanthropic organizations in Brazil. She was named "The Most Admired Woman in the History of Brazil" and the "Most Influential Religious Person in Brazil During the 20th Century" by Brazilian magazines.

Italian teenager, St. Carlo Acutis had a great love for the Eucharist. He dedicated his short life to documenting Eucharistic miracles around the world and cataloging them on a website that he created before his death at age 15 from leukemia. We had no idea he was doing that, but now his accomplishment serves the entire Universal Church. We will be exhibiting a large selection of his posters at our Eucharistic Miracle Exhibit in the gym during Jesus Fest on September 16-17.

The list goes on and on, humble Christians serving Jesus as they know best. Some we may learn about, but most we will not, in this life anyway. As disciples, we should be assured that at this very moment, good people are doing Christ's redeeming work in all corners of the earth. Peace and goodness will prevail.

Scripture: Read Acts of the Apostles 1:8. What stands out?

Call to Action: Visit the Eucharistic Miracle Exhibit and remember that Jesus has a mission for you too - here and now!
