while we're at it

Dear Friends,

I spent most of last week at a convention for pro-life pregnancy resource centers to learn how we could make our Gianna House more and more effective in reaching women with unexpected pregnancies who are tempted to abortion as a solution.

We learned that there are over 2800 pregnancy resource centers around the country helping women with everything from counseling to material assistance and support during and after the pregnancy. Often the pro-abortion argument runs like this: Christians care about babies only in the womb, but once born, they don't do anything for women and kids in poverty. The pro-life community – including both Catholics and other Christian churches – has made a huge investment and commitment to life. We don't just talk. We work, and we do whatever it takes. Tens of thousands of people are working and volunteering to make sure these moms feel the support and the love of Christian people who don't judge, but just serve struggling women who are all too often alone and without many resources.

We should all be proud of Gianna House that is working to give options to women, so they don't feel the need to have an abortion. Our neighboring parishes too have provided financial support and volunteers for the center and it's a joy to work together for life. Thank you for your support and your commitment to the notion that every human life is made in the image and likeness of God, and therefore sacred.

Don't forget to put on your calendar three big things coming up this month and next:

1. Jesus Fest is next weekend – big tents with adoration, confession, prayer instruction, Eucharistic miracles, and plenty more. We kick off our religious education program that weekend along with the Jesus Fest.

2. Bishop Whalen is coming for the Shepherds Speak Holy Hour on Tuesday, September 19th at 7:00 pm in the Church. This is a unique series of holy hours with each one of our bishops and the Cardinal too.

3. The NYS Eucharistic Congress in Auriesville on October 21. Sign up for one of the buses that will take us up for an amazing day to join Catholics from all over the state, from every diocese – to worship the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament in that sacred place, where the first martyrs in North America were persecuted and died. Reserve your spot on the bus at stlawrenceotoole.org/NYS_EC

Thanks for all you do to make our parishes great!

God bless,

Fr. Richard

our vision Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

back to school blessing

SAVANNAH DEFELICE

School started on Tuesday, September 5th. Last weekend after the Masses, we had the blessing of the students. I have had the privilege of teaching Kidz Chapel the last month. One thing I always ask the kids for are prayer requests and prayers of thanksgiving. Every single time, at least 3 children ask to pray for the new school year. They were either moving up to middle school or for a particular sacramental year. Whatever the case, we always pray for them during Kidz Chapel

They were all so nervous and let's face it, we have all been there! Being worried about a new teacher, or new students in your class, or scared that the same students may be in your class! There's lots of change and with change comes nerves. Fr. Gill, Fr. Clifford, and Fr. Hernandez all gave the children a beautiful blessing that I'm sure made them feel a little bit better!

We also gave the children a St. Benedict medal. St. Benedict is the patron saint of school children and on the medal are Latin prayers against Satan saying "(C.S.S.M.L)The Holy Cross be thy light, (N.D.S.M.D) May the dragon never be my guide, (V.R.S) Get away Satan, (N.S.M.V) Never tempt me with your vanities, (S.M.Q.L) What you offer me is evil, and (I.V.B) Drink the poison yourself." Please pray for the children at our parishes, that they have a wonderful, safe, happy, and healthy school year!

Our Family Program kick-off is next weekend September 16th & 17th. Make sure you come to check out all of the fun activities we have planned!

let this beloved saint help you find meaning in september

ANNABELLE MOSELEY

St. Pio is a wonderful mentor this September, the month in which the Church calls us to deepen our devotion to the Seven Sorrows of Mary, which are: The Prophecy of Simeon, The Flight into Egypt, The Search for the Child in Jerusalem, Mary Meets Jesus on the Way of the Cross, Standing at the Foot of the Cross, The Crucifixion and Descent from the Cross, and Assisting at the Burial of Christ.

St. Pio is a favorite saint of many, and he is known as one who is very helpful and kind to all those who seek his intercession. Born Francesco Forgione in 1887, this great Italian saint who became the Capuchin priest known as Padre Pio, lived at the friary in San Giovanni Rotondo. He also has a very special bond with America because his father went to Jamaica, New York, twice to work, raising money to provide for his family.

Directly after Mass on September 20, 1918, Padre Pio had a vision of Jesus and received the stigmata not only on his hands, but also on his feet and side. He endured persecution for these wounds throughout his life. Some in the Vatican were skeptical of Padre Pio and for several years, he was stripped of the faculties of his priestly ministry, except to say private Mass. Padre Pio endured this deep sorrow with heroic patience, trusting in God.

When his public priestly faculties were restored, he spent 10 hours hearing Confessions daily. His Holy Mass took about three hours. He built a hospital near his friary which he called: "House for the Alleviation of Suffering." Let us then turn to Our Sorrowful Mother and to the intercession of St. Pio when we wish our suffering to be alleviated, and to be reminded of the deep purpose our suffering provides when it is offered up to God.

Here are three quotes by St. Pio that serve as wisdom in our own lives and a special inspiration this September, reminding us that suffering when offered to God with love is a great source of holiness.

1) "The cross will not crush you; if its weight makes you stagger, its power will also sustain you." When Simon of Cyrene took hold of the Cross, he was assisted by the very blood of Jesus which was upon the Cross. This reminds us that when we stagger under the weight of the cross, we will also experience the nearness of Christ.

2) "By suffering we are able to give something to God. The gift of pain, of suffering, is a big thing and cannot be accomplished in Paradise." We are reminded our suffering is a precious gift we can give God while we're still on earth, to offer up for the conversion of souls, the souls for whom we are praying, the release of souls in Purgatory, the reparation of the hearts of Jesus and Mary, and the purification of our own soul.

3) "Your tears were collected by the angels and were placed in a golden chalice, and you will find them when you present yourself before God." This image, explained by Padre Pio is a beautiful comfort for hard times. Imagine tears shed in sorrow as a gift of the Holy Spirit to help us draw closer to God; a gift we cannot fully understand this side of heaven."

To celebrate the influence of St. Pio this month, try having a Padre Pio-themed dinner: any delicious Italian food will do ... and invite someone who is lonely to join you for that dinner, in the spirit of the "alleviation of suffering." Or why not buy a cappuccino (Padre Pio was a Capuchin) for someone who needs a good cheering up? Sometimes these simple gestures have lasting effects, especially if you are also offering special prayers for that person. Try praying St. Pio's favorite go-to prayer, the Chaplet of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, all month long for three souls in your life who need help.

Since Padre Pio was a famous confessor, go to Reconciliation in St. Pio's honor! Ask for his help recalling all the sins that have been burdening your conscience so you can feel truly lighter and happier once you've prayed your penance.

St. Pio was a zealous advocate of praying the Seven Sorrows Rosary which recalls the suffering of Jesus and gives joy to the Heart of Mary when it is prayed, as it consoles her Son. This beautiful devotion will give us a closer bond with Jesus and Mary.

To honor the Seven Sorrows of Mary this September and follow the example of St. Pio's spirit of reparation, visit our Divine Mercy Adoration Chapel and pray the Seven Sorrows Rosary.

INTRODUCE, RENEW, AND REVIVE!

St. Lawrence and Sacred Heart are Eucharist-centered parishes. Our priests have a deep love for the Eucharist, and they are focused on helping us all draw close to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Hundreds of parishioners spend time praying in Jesus' presence in our perpetual Adoration Chapel each week. They pray for their own needs, the prayer intentions in the bulletin, and the unseen needs of our parish, community, nation, and the world. Those prayers are making a difference. Our world is a little better because of them.

We are currently in the middle of a nation-wide three-year Eucharistic Revival. The US Bishops are encouraging parishes to offer Adoration, teach classes on the Eucharist, and lead Eucharistic processions, like the one we do every year for Corpus Christi.

Since we have established a strong Eucharistic foundation here, Fr. Gill wants to educate and inspire our community further yet, to introduce, renew, and revive. That big event is Jesus Fest!

The centerpiece of our event is a big revival tent in the Parish Center parking lot hosting outdoor Eucharistic Adoration throughout the Fest: Saturday, 2 pm –10 pm and Sunday, 8 am – 4 pm. Catholic songwriter and performer, Danielle Rose is coming from Mobile, Alabama, to teach, sing, and share her love for the Blessed Sacrament. Beloved Sheila Valastro, St. Lawrence's former praise and worship leader, is coming back from Florida and will be inspiring our voices and hearts too. Our Spanish choir will shift us all into high gear with their inspiring charismatic love for Jesus. The Holy Spirit will be in the front row!

Throughout both days, activities are planned to encourage rich prayer lives. Julie Noce will guide us in different forms of prayer in our Learn to Pray tent. The Saint Garden will be available for personal meditation, and the Arise Prayer Ministry will be there to pray with you for physical, emotional, and spiritual healing. Prayer Intention Candles and Luminary Lanterns will be available to dedicate to someone you know that needs prayers. Saturday night will culminate with a beautiful Candlelight Eucharistic Procession!

Confessions, the Eucharistic Miracles exhibit, activities and story time for kids, a gift shop, and food will round out the weekend. Come, bring a friend. Whether you need an introduction, renewal or revival, you will find it there!

Scripture: Read John 6:53-57. What stands out?
