while we're at it

Dear Friends,

I hope you made it to the Jesus Fest last weekend – it was totally awesome, with hundreds of kids and families passing through the Adoration chapel in the big tent, doing the scavenger hunt and the Saints Walk, or visiting the “how to pray” tent, or picking up some tortillas for a bite to eat. It had everything – good spirituality, the Blessed Sacrament, fraternity, parish spirit, charity, and good fun.

And that’s what a parish is all about – building a community of people centered around the worship of Jesus in the Eucharist. For all our faults and defects, we are still God’s people, and we’re walking together, sometimes limping along with the help of each other, but taking little steps in the right direction and trying to let Jesus take over our lives more and more. The closer we get to God, the closer we get to each other.

Getting close to God has got to be our goal... every one of us. A great way is to learn more about your faith. Fortunately, we offer a lot of great mini-courses to keep growing and understanding what we believe. Check out the Fall offerings in Adult Faith Formation here in this bulletin.

And if you know any adult who needs to do their Sacraments of First Communion or Confirmation, have them call the parish office and get signed up. We’ll be starting classes soon, and they can receive those sacraments at Easter.

The best thing you can do in October to grow in love for the Eucharist? Well, besides receiving Holy Communion in a state of grace (Get to regular Confession for that...), is to join us for the New York State Eucharistic Revival on October 21 in Auriesville, NY, outside of Albany. We’re organizing parish buses to leave in the morning for the Shrine of the North American Martyrs and return that evening. There will be Mass, Eucharistic Procession, great speakers, food, and fun.

We’re blessed to have all this going on, and we’re smart if we take advantage of it all.

Next Saturday is a big event for Brewster Cares at Las Mañanitas: a fundraiser for our homeless shelter, which runs December through March and gives the unfortunate among us a warm place, food, and love. We need to raise money for that, and for our ESL program for immigrants to give them a shot at success. Come on out to help.

God bless,

Fr. Richard

our vision

Create a parish of missionary disciples whose personal relationship with Jesus Christ inspires others into a life-changing relationship with Him.

jesus fest! rejoiced & renewed

Christina Burnett

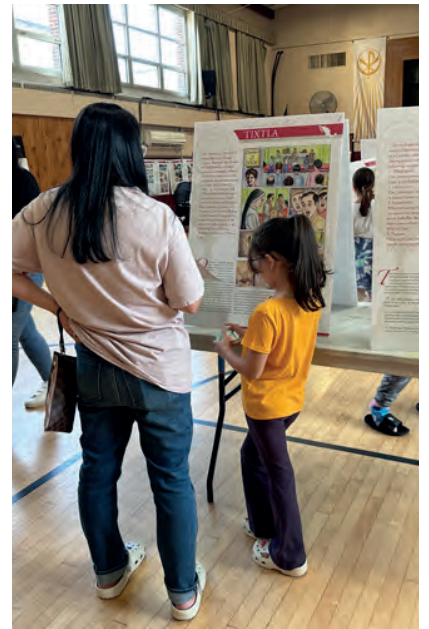

This past weekend, our parish held it's first Jesus Fest in the parking lot behind St. Lawrence O'Toole Church. The week-end included Eucharistic Adoration, a Eucharistic Procession, live music, healing prayer, and more. It was a wonderful event for the whole community to really acknowledge the true presence of Jesus in the Eucharist.

My first experience at Jesus Fest was Saturday afternoon when I went with my son for the Family Program kickoff. There, he and I learned about Eucharistic miracles, how to pray, and about the saints of the new prayer garden at the church. My son had fun seeing his friends, doing crafts, and listening to music in the chapel. His favorite part of the event, however, was the prize he received from filling out a quiz about the Eucharistic miracles. The children's event was a great way to start a new Religious Ed year by having the students learn some of the basics of their faith while having fun and winning prizes.

Later that evening, I returned to Jesus Fest for my hour of Adoration. Between the perfect weather, the beautiful worship music, and the stunning chapel setup under the tent, this week was my favorite holy hour I have spent. The energy in the tent was amazing as Fr. Hernandez played his guitar and sang, and we parishioners sang along to worship our Lord who was with us under that tent. I hope that our voices were carried throughout the neighborhood to spread the love of Jesus through Brewster.

My last stop at Jesus Fest was Sunday after Mass. My family and I went to the chapel to sit in front of Jesus and listen to worship music before heading home. It was a perfect way to end our weekend – offering a prayer to our Lord who has blessed us so much.

GLIMPSES OF HEAVEN

We own a timeshare in Aruba and I have been traveling there for over 30 years. While there, every night we convene on the beach by 6:30 pm to watch the sunset. There is something mesmerizing about watching our fiery star make its final descent, touch the horizon, and sink into the sea. Sometimes there are clouds, sometimes clear skies; it can look different every day. Year after year I would take pictures, but most recently I began noticing that my photos look nothing like the sunset my eyes see. The colors can be flipped so that a white sun looks orange; the sky might look dark when it is light or orange when it is blue. We have tried cameras, iPhones, Androids, GoPro, and they all fail miserably. Our attempts all provide interesting and beautiful pictures, but they do not capture the real thing.

I experienced that same phenomenon at Jesus Fest last week-end. A beautiful altar was erected to host the Blessed Sacrament for adoration in the big revival tent. The drapery, altar cloths, and lighting enhanced the monstrance so beautifully that it sparkled with life. I don't have the words to describe it adequately and my phone failed again to capture what my eyes saw. If you were there, you know what I mean. If you weren't, trust me that any photos we post do not do it justice.

Our event musicians, Danielle Rose, Sheila Valastro, and the St. Lawrence Band stirred our ears in a similar mystifying manner. A note, a chord, or a verse would touch me in an otherworldly sort of way. It caused me to ponder on what heavenly music sounds like. Was God giving me a glimpse of heaven? Might the angels have been performing alongside?

As Catholics, we know that when we are in Jesus' presence: at Jesus Fest, in our churches, and in our Divine Mercy Adoration Chapel, we are in heaven. Wherever Jesus is, angels and saints surround Him. The veil that divides our realities is drawn back and the heavenly ones worship among us. At the very least, remember that 200 people in the church means 200 guardian angels accompanying them! Look around and absorb that truth. Then stay alert for the flash or sparkle, note or chord, breeze or chill that is otherworldly, that you can't describe or record, and thank God for that glimpse of heaven.

Scripture: Read 1 Corinthians 2:9-10. What stands out?

Call to Action: Watch for those glimpses in God's creation as well: in the clouds, fall foliage, birds, flowers, little children...
