while we're at it

Dear Friends,

Today is the feast of Christ the King, the last Sunday of the liturgical year, and next Sunday we begin the Advent season. Today's feast dates back a century, when the Church was trying, in the rise of new dictatorships and totalitarian systems like Communism, to emphasize that only Jesus Christ is King and Lord of all. It was an idea before its time and still today, the idea of the Lordship of Jesus is one most people just don't get.

We follow all sorts of leaders both bad and good. Never before have we been dragged along by celebrity culture as we are now. Taylor Swift, the Kardashians, rappers, and hip-hop artists drive the culture. For strange reasons, we are interested in how actors, entertainers, or athletes think about things they know very little about. Despite our cynicism about politics, we want to believe the next guy will be our savior. And we get played over and over again, yet still, we believe in them.

Groupthink is a big danger and leads to us following passing fads or the passions of the moment. We're supposed to stress out over nuclear weapons, then the ozone hole, then climate change, then COVID... and what next? Yesterday we worried about the Ukrainians, then briefly the Israeli victims of Hamas, and now the elites tell us it is Palestinians we should care most about. We're told the world's greatest democracy will come to an end if somehow the wrong guy gets elected. Our addiction to social media just makes this frenzied attention to the actual moment we live in worse.

Christians should be insulated from all that because we take the long view. We know where we came from and where we are headed: to the Kingdom where Jesus Christ is Lord of all.

We need the ability to step back and think in terms of eternity. We need some quiet, some space for reflection on what matters in the long term. Some silence and recollection.

When we do, we remember we were made by God and for God and our destiny is with him. That he sent his only Son Jesus into the world to save us from this world and bring us home to him. That we need to know, love, and serve him in this life if we are to be happy with him in the next. Christians know this life is a preparation for the life to come, where he is Lord forever, the Eternal King. And that's why we know this life, with all its drama and silliness, is passing away.

Long live Christ the King! We say that today on his feast. And starting in Advent, "Come Lord Jesus! O Come, O Come Emmanuel." He is our only hope.

God bless,

Fr. Richard

Prayer is “Jesus”

FR. PETER JOHN CAMERON, OP
ALETEIA.ORG

“If we are unable to do anything else, we should press the Holy Name of Jesus upon our souls ...”

Even in those moments when we feel like it is impossible for us to pray, we’re still capable of praying Jesus’ Holy Name. Dominican mystic Bl. Henry Suso assures us: “If we are unable to do anything else, we should press the Holy Name of Jesus upon our souls and repeat this gracious name. We should think of it so often during the day that we will dream of it during the night.”

Praying the Holy Name of Jesus changes us. St. Bonaventure says: The Holy Name of Jesus is powerful, because it brings down our enemies, restores our strength, and renews our mind. In it is contained the foundation of faith, the ground of hope, and the fulfillment of holiness. It is gladness to the heart and splendor to the mind. It nourishes when it is recalled, soothes when it is uttered, anoints when it is invoked, refreshes when it is written, and instructs when it is read. It gives sight to the blind, makes the lame walk, brings hearing to the deaf, speech to the dumb, and life to the dead. [The Holy Name of Jesus saves] you from the vanities of the world which entice you, from the deceits of the devil which surround you, and from the weakness of the flesh which torments you.

“The Name Jesus possesses great and manifold power,” observes St. Thomas Aquinas, “for it is to those repenting, a refuge; to those who are sick, a remedy; to those fighting life’s battle, a shield of defense; to those praying, a help and consolation; because it obtains pardon for sin, strength of body and of mind; victory for those tempted; power and confidence in securing the salvation of souls. For just as oil soothes pain, so does the Name Jesus.

St. Bernard agrees: “My soul, you have a hidden remedy in a little vessel, named Jesus, which has proven itself to be a powerful cure for every disease.” And St. Peter Chrysologus adds: “The power of this Name Jesus has put to flight the entire power of the devil from bodies possessed of diabolical power.” The Holy Name of Jesus blesses us with a way to hold fast to the Word of God and to bring forth fruit with patience (see CCC 2668).

“If you think the name Jesus continually, and hold it firmly,” promises the 14th-century mystic Richard Rolle, “it purges your sin, and kindles your heart; it clarifies your soul, it removes anger and does away slowness. It wounds in love and fulfills charity. It chases the devil, and puts out dread. It opens heaven, and makes a person a contemplative. It puts all vices and phantoms out from the one who loves.”

Introduction

As the days get shorter in many parts of the world, we enter a season of waiting and preparation. This liturgical season is Advent, in which we eagerly await the birth of Jesus. It is also the first season of the new liturgical year. In Advent, we are renewed with anticipation of the birth of Jesus. Christ the King. Light of the World. Son of God. Prince of Peace. King of Kings.

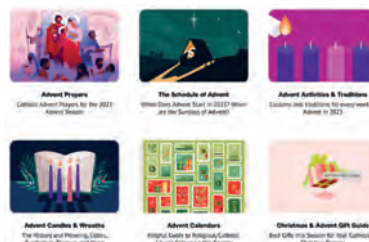

As St. (Pope) John Paul II said one First Sunday of Advent, "In Advent, we await an event which occurs in history and at the same time transcends it."

The Season of Advent -Dec 3- Dec 24

Both Lent and Advent are seasons of waiting, preparation, and penance. During Lent, we await Christ's return from 40 days in the desert, His loving sacrifice for us, and Resurrection. In Advent, we prepare for His birth. The birth and resurrection of Christ are intertwined, and their connection is quite significant theologically. Yet, these seasons of waiting look different for us – Advent is a uniquely joyous and hopeful season in the Church.

We light candles amidst the darkness. We find warmth in the cold, dark winter season. And we come together as friends and family to celebrate the coming of our Savior. Advent is also the beginning of a new liturgical year. (This Advent season marks the start of Year B.) We begin the year anew, renewed by His birth.

Go to HALLOW.COM and find many ways to make this Advent a more spiritual season. Plus, you can try Hallow for 30 days FREE.

LYNDA HOLLER
DIRECTOR OF DISCIPLESHIP

KING OF KINGS AND PRESIDENTS

The current political climate can leave most Americans feeling discouraged by our leaders. It isn't a new problem. In my voting lifetime, I never remember voting for a national leader that I was excited to support. I always find myself voting for the opponent of the candidate I dislike the most. But I haven't heard of any other countries that have figured out a better system. All forms of government, in countries all around the globe, since the beginning of time, seem to be infiltrated with self-serving leaders, who succumb to all sorts of corrupt behavior.

We just celebrated the feast day of St. Elizabeth of Hungary; she is recognized as one of the most beloved canonized royals in Europe. There have been over 100 Christian monarchs that became canonized saints. Imagine what our life would be like, how very different it would be, if our nations were led by virtuous and righteous leaders. Ones who sacrificed their own comfort and self-interest for that of their people.

As Christians, we can be thankful that we have Jesus Christ King of the Universe as our divine monarch. We know that He has only our best interests in mind and will make sure our needs are met. There is no chance of lies or corruption from Truth Himself and He will never give in to popular opinion if it conflicts with what is wise and good.

Jesus is our own personal King, but as King of the Universe, we know that He is king over each nation, each leader of the world, right here and now, including ours. Our human leaders may let us down, but we can remain confident that our divine king is in control. That nothing is outside of his realm and that He can use all for his good and glory.

Scripture: Read Isaiah 9:6. What stands out?

Call to Action: Let us pray for our nation, for our current leaders, and for the virtuous candidates who need to step up to serve God and the American people selflessly.
